

■ Tokyo Civil Litigation Search

Identifying on-going and historical litigation records is critical when conducting deal due diligence, vendor screening or employee vetting. J-Screen has developed the only database of Tokyo civil litigation records in Japan. The database covers all cases heard in the Tokyo District Court and is updated daily. The records go back to late 2004 and currently cover over 1 million individuals and companies. The Tokyo District Court will hear all civil cases in Tokyo area excluding family matters, driving offences and small claims. In addition to contract litigation, cases covered in clued labor disputes, union disputes, medical lawsuits, tax disputes and others. Searches can be conducted against the name of a company or an individual to identify any cases that the entity has been a party to since 2004. Full details of the case can also be provided if required.

The information is proprietary to J-Screen and we are the only company able to provide a comprehensive Tokyo Litigation search.
